Press Release

DATE and TIME: December 18, 2014 6PM

TYPE OF EVENT: “Reserve Peace Officer-Modular Academy” Community Meeting

LOCATION: 100 W. California Ave. / City Council Chambers

On December 18, 2014, the Ridgecrest Police Department, in conjunction with the Kern County Sheriff's Department and Cerro Coso Community College, will be hosting an informative meeting regarding the upcoming Basic Peace Officer Academy Module III to be held at Cerro Coso Community College beginning January 20, 2015.

The purpose of this meeting is to provide relevant information to those individuals who are interested in serving the community as a Reserve Peace Officer. The Cerro Coso Basic Peace Officer Academy will provide the necessary training and education to qualify for a Reserve Police Officer or Reserve Deputy position anywhere in the State of California.

Speakers from all three agencies will provide information regarding qualifications, opportunities, scheduling, cost, and other items related to becoming a Reserve Peace Officer.

Additional information regarding the Basic Peace Officer Academy Modules may be obtained by contacting the Cerro Coso Community College Director of Public Safety, Jarrod Bowen, at (760) 384-6304.
